PETER FINE DIES

Following a long and difficult illness, Peter Fine passed away Saturday morning at the Washington Hospital Center. He entered Johns Hopkins Hospital in late December to undergo brain surgery. After many months of hospitalization, he was able to return home under nursing care late this summer.

Memorial services were held on Sunday at the Cedar Lane Unitarian Church in Silver Spring. A second service was also held in New York.

Our acquaintance with Pete Fine was far too short, but we will all remember him for his wit, his sincerity and his energy.

Friends are asked to direct all contributions to a memorial fund in his name at the Cedar Lane Unitarian Church.

A MCM unit has been installed at the Defense Mapping Agency Topographic Center here in Washington for its deaf employees. It was officially put into operation at a dedication ceremony on September 17.

The MCM is located in the DMATC's Communication Center which is manned 24 hours a day Monday through Friday. The number is 227-2022.
